

As a Principal and Chief Financial Officer at Property Services Inc., my role is centered on utilizing my extensive background in real estate to enhance the quality and range of property management services we offer to our clients. My approach is client-centric, focusing on delivering property management solutions that meet our clients' specific needs while maximizing their investment's potential. My responsibilities include overseeing the financial aspects of property management, ensuring that our clients' investments are optimized for maximum returns and that their assets are protected and enhanced under our care. By focusing on financial stewardship and strategic management, I strive to build trust with our clients, ensuring that their properties are not just managed but are also growing in value.
